BBQ Boot Camp is a collaborative effort of NDSU meat scientists, NDSU food science faculty, the NDSU Department of Animal Science and the NDSU Extension Service.

You'll learn about:

- New cooking methods and practices
- Meat cut selection
- Rubs, marinades and seasonings
- Food safety
- Smoking, gas and charcoal cooking
- Meat industry topics, including related research, teaching and Extension activities at NDSU

The $30 fee includes information, a binder with recipes, lots of bbq and a full meal!

Sponsors:

North Dakota Pork Producers Council
North Dakota Lamb and Wool Producers Association
North Dakota Beef Commission
Northern Plains Distributing Inc.
Cloverdale Foods are helping sponsor the camps.

NDSU is an equal opportunity institution.
