

Mike Wilson's Five Things You Shouldn't Say at a Beef Producers Meeting

Who forgot
to invite the CEO
of Tyson?

The imported
beef from Mexico
provides a solid
floor in the market.

I'm just
going to eat at
the salad bar, and
skip the filet
mignon.

Beef; it's what got passed up
in favor of chicken
for tonight.

I wish the
cattle industry
would be more
structured, more
like the pork
industry.
