

Premises – Any geographically unique location associated with animal agriculture that would allow for the comingling or movement of animals or poultry that is involved in commerce.